

Cookies

Cookies are key/value pairs sent back and forth between the browser and the server in HTTP request and response

Anatomy of a Cookie

- Text data (Up to 4kb)
- May (or may not) have an expiration date
- Bound to a domain name and a path
- May have security flags (coming later)
- Can be manipulated from the client and the server